

BEHIND THE CLEAN · FIELD NOTE 26

Tell your cleaner once. Write it well.

A useful home note is short, specific, and easy for the next cleaner to act on. Record the instruction and the reason when it affects the method.

YOUR KIT

Private booking notes; surface instructions; current priority list

A HOME HAS PREFERENCES, NOT JUST ROOMS. · EDITORIAL PHOTOGRAPHY

Three deliberate steps.

01 Name the exact area

Write “kitchen island, sealed marble” rather than “be careful in the kitchen.” Include approved products or the manufacturer instructions if known.

02 Separate preferences from priorities

Preferences stay useful each visit. Priorities are what matters today. Say which rooms, objects, or tasks are outside the agreed scope.

03 Keep access information private

Use the authorized secure channel for entry details. Review outdated notes and confirm changes before the next visit.

The final check.

- ☐ Specific area named
- ☐ Today's priorities separated
- ☐ Access details kept private

Know when to pause.

Do not put door codes, alarm codes, or customer information in social posts or public screenshots.

Specific notes create a more personal clean.

Always follow the surface maker's care instructions and product label. Never mix cleaning products. This guide is for ordinary household care, not hazardous-material remediation. Product-specific instructions take priority.
